TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR SPECIAL SERIES PLATES

- The number plates remain the property of Department for Planning and Infrastructure.
- The number plates shall not be attached to a taxi, omnibus or any other vehicle which requires specific identifying number plates allocated by Department for Planning and Infrastructure.
- If the holder of the right to display and trade certificate does not nominate a Western Australian vehicle on which to display the plates, the plates must be stored by Department for Planning and Infrastructure.

The Right to Display

The successful applicant will obtain the Right to Display and Trade the number plates and will receive a certificate to that effect.

The Right to Trade

The holder of the Right to Display and Trade may offer that right for sale. A sale can take place at any price to any individual or corporation by transferring the rights.

Transfer of Rights

A person or corporation who is entitled to the Right to Display and Trade may transfer the entitlement. With each transfer, Department for Planning and Infrastructure must be notified of the transaction by completing a Plate Transfer form.

The seller of the Right to Display and Trade must within 14 days of the plate transfer, present to Department for Planning and Infrastructure:

- the duplicate Plate Transfer form;
- the plates if not already held by Department for Planning and Infrastructure; and
- the Right to Display and Trade certificate.

The purchaser of the Right to Display and Trade must present the Plate Transfer form to State Revenue located at:

Mt Newman House
200 St George's Terrace
Perth

A stamp duty fee will be payable.

The purchaser must then present to Department for Planning and Infrastructure:

- the original of the Plate Transfer form showing receipt of appropriate stamp duty paid to State Revenue;
- the existing number plates on the vehicle on which the Special plates are to be displayed; and
- Pay the appropriate fee.

DPI will issue to the purchaser of the Right to Display and Trade the plates a certificate to that effect.

Storage of Plates

Plates not attached to a Western Australian licensed vehicle will be stored by Department for Planning and Infrastructure and a storage fee for each year or part thereof will be charged to the owner of the Right to Display the plates.
